All books are published in English. It should be noted that prices of books are quoted in Austrian Schillings. The prices do not include local taxes and are subject to change without notice.

All books in this catalogue are 21 × 30 cm, paper-bound, unless otherwise stated.

In addition all books in this catalogue, except for the INIS Input Training Kit, are available on microfiche. For information on the microfiche versions, contact the INIS Clearinghouse of the IAEA.

INIS ATOMINDEX

INIS Atomindex is a semi-monthly abstracting journal prepared by computer electronic publishing from the INIS Database on magnetic tape. It is printed on a high resolution laser printer. The bulk of the information contained in the magnetic tapes is present in INIS Atomindex. The major exception to this are the subject descriptors, whose main purpose is for online searching. These are omitted from all INIS Atomindex entries that are accompanied by abstracts, for which entries only the key descriptors are printed.

Each issue of INIS Atomindex contains bibliographic descriptions, descriptors and, usually, abstracts for all items recorded in the system, namely books, research reports, patents, journal articles, conference papers, etc. About 80 000 references per year are grouped by subject categories. Each issue includes a personal author index, a corporate entry index, a report, standard and patent number index, a subject index, and two conference indexes by date and place. The references are in English with the titles also given in the original language — transliterated where necessary. The abstracts are printed in English and may, in addition, appear in French, Russian or Spanish, the other official languages of the IAEA. Twenty-four issues are published per year, cumulative indexes are published annually. The first issue of each year includes a list of the journals regularly scanned for in-scope articles.

INIS REFERENCE SERIES

The INIS Reference Series defines the rules, standards, formats, codes and authority lists on which the International Nuclear Information System is based. Over the years most manuals have been revised or merged, and further revisions will be issued in the future. The series consists of 12 current manuals, all of which are available in print and on microfiche and are described below.

INIS: GUIDE TO BIBLIOGRAPHIC DESCRIPTION INIS Reference Series No. 1

This manual (formerly published under the title 'Descriptive Cataloguing Rules') contains the rules, standards and formats for bibliographic descriptions adopted by centres preparing input to INIS. The rules are presented in a simplified style and several examples are provided to clarify the texts. Various appendices are included, among them: the INIS character set; the INIS rules for entering romanized Chinese personal names; a list of corporate abbreviations; and a list of state and province codes for several countries. Also included in this current revision is the information contained in INIS: Terminology and Codes for Countries and International Organizations (IAEA-INIS-5) and INIS: Transliteration Rules for Selected Non-Roman Characters (IAEA-INIS-10). This manual is intended to be used in conjunction with a companion volume entitled INIS: Descriptive Cataloguing Samples (IAEA-INIS-2).

IAEA-INIS-1 (Rev. 8) (198 pp.; 1992)
ISBN 92-0-104892-0
Price: 520 Austrian Schillings

INIS: SAMPLES FOR BIBLIOGRAPHIC DESCRIPTION *NEW INIS Reference Series No. 2

This manual contains samples prepared in accordance with the latest INIS cataloguing rules as set out in IAEA-INIS-1 (Rev. 8): Guide to Bibliographic Description and its updates. The samples contain all the parts required for submitting records to INIS, i.e. the bibliographic and indexing parts as well as the abstract, but the comments focus on aspects of bibliographic description.

IAEA-INIS-2 (Rev. 7) (55 p.; 1996)
ISBN 92-0-103896-8
Price: 120 Austrian Schillings

INIS: SUBJECT CATEGORIES AND SCOPE DESCRIPTIONS

INIS Reference Series No. 3

This manual serves two purposes: it defines the subject scope of INIS as well as its subject classification scheme. The INIS subject scope covers all aspects of the peaceful uses of nuclear science and technology. From 1992 onwards the scope was expanded to include the economic and environmental aspects of all energy sources.

IAEA-INIS-3 (Rev. 7) (111 pp., 1991)

ISBN 92-0-178191-1

Price: 160 Austrian Schillings

INIS: INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING ABSTRACTS

INIS Reference Series No. 4

This revision of IAEA-INIS-4 provides up-to-date rules on the formal submission of abstracts to INIS, as well as a guide to the techniques of abstracting. It is meant not only for writers of abstracts but also for those who may be guided by the abstract in selecting input and those whose critical assessment of what constitutes a useful, acceptable and informative abstract may give rise to feedback to the document source. Thus the manual acts as a guide to progressive improvement in the quality of accompanying abstracts.

ENTRIES AND REPORT NUMBER PREFIXES

*NEW

INIS Reference Series No. 6

This manual contains the standardized names of 32 098 organizations reported to INIS as corporate authors, issuing bodies or funding organizations, together with their unique seven-digit codes and country codes. Part I lists the corporate entries in alphabetical order under the countries in which they are located, except for international organizations that are INIS participants; these appear in this part as separate entries, in alphabetical order, by their names. Part II contains an alphabetical list of all corporate entries, followed by all report number prefixes linked to them. Part III lists all the report number prefixes used in connection with the corporate entry names.

It contains the revised INIS character set and representations of it, together with encoding rules for the exchange format and, specifically for input, the worksheet format on magnetic tape and diskette. It is divided into three parts: Part I: Character set and encoding rules; Part II: Worksheet format on magnetic tape and diskette; Part III: Magnetic tape exchange format and specifications (corresponding to ISO Standard 2709). The INIS 8-bit code is an extension of the ISO Standard 646 physical character set for information interchange. The document also contains instructions on how to encode symbols occurring in scientific and technical texts.

IAEA YEARBOOK 1996

The eighth edition of the IAEA Yearbook concentrates on developments in nuclear science and technology. The first article provides an account of the IAEA's involvement in international efforts over the past ten years to compile and disseminate scientifically assessed information on the causes and consequences of the 1986 Chernobyl nuclear power plant accident. Part A focuses on the IAEA's efforts to improve the quality of technical co-operation projects, with emphasis on better planning to maximize the impact of these programmes. Part B provides details on how nuclear techniques can be used to improve human health and welfare, on new developments in food irradiation, and on the role of isotopæ tools in the fight against malnutrition. A report on the latest status and trends in the area of nuclear power, the nuclear fuel cycle and radioactive waste management is presented in Part C. The Nuclear Safety Review, Part D, concentrates on selected areas of special interest, covering nuclear safety, radiation safety and radioactive waste safety. Part E, dealing with IAEA safeguards activities, provides a report on the status of safeguards implementation in 1995, as well as articles on the IAEA's new 'Clean Laboratory' at Seibersdorf, on combating the illicit trafficking of nuclear material and other radioactive sources, and on new trends in safeguards inspector training.
